02 Sep 2003

I was in Sturgis, South Dakota, in August and visited the American Veterans Traveling Tribute, a traveling 5/8 scale model Vietnam Veterans Wall that was at the Buffalo Chip camp ground. I frequently visit the various traveling Walls to see my friends' names.

We were with C Troop, 2/17th Cav, and we were shot down in a helicopter. 1Lt John F Shiefer was the co-pilot and he and the pilot WO Mark Minear were killed. I survived.

From a comrade in arms,
Steve Ross

Notes from The Virtual Wall

On 29 Aug 1970 a UH-1H Huey (tail number 67-17699) of C Troop, 2nd Squadron, 17th Cavalry, was involved in a Ranger team insertion. As the aircraft settled into the landing zone it was hit repeatedly in the forward section by 12.7mm antiaircraft machinegun and RPG fire. With both pilots dead or dying, the aircraft crashed. Of the eight men aboard, four were injured but recovered by another aircraft and four were dead:

- WO Mark W. Minear, pilot, C/2/17 Cav
- 1LT John Frederick Shiefer, copilot, C/2/17 Cav
- SP4 Lawrence Elwood Scheib, Jr., L Co, 75th Infantry (Rangers)
- PFC Harry Thomas Henthorn, L Co, 75th Infantry (Rangers)
